A STRICT CENSORSHIP LEADS TO THIS BELIEF

Only Indirect Reports Coming From the Battle Front Have Created an Air of Expectancy. Russians Are Within Four Miles of Cracow. Its Fall Opens Road to Berlin—Both French and Germans Prepare for Bigger Activities in Alsace—Both Sides Claim Advantages in Belgium—Allies Send Troops to Montenegro—Prince of Wales Is at the Front—Italy Is Said to be Hanging in the Balance—Turks Are Quiet—Russians Claim Capture of Men and Munitions.

(By Associated Press.)
London, Dec. 4.—Few indirect references to the battles is the only information received here in the past twenty-four hours. The unusual stringency of the censorship causes the suspicion that big developments are pending.

The Russians very seriously threatened Cracow, whose capture would open the road to Berlin.

The German campaign toward Warsaw has failed to divert the Russians from Cracow, which is now within four miles of the Russians' big guns. In France the reports of recent artillery duels show marked improvement in the allies' artillery, which is now overbearing the German cannon fire.

Both the French and Germans are preparing for bigger movements in Alsace.

(By Associated Press.)
Berlin, Dec. 4.—(Official.)—The French in Belgium have assumed the offensive, repeatedly attacking the Germans, and the French were repulsed with heavy losses.

The French met a reverse in Alsace. The Russians were repulsed in the East Prussia lake region. The Kaiser arrived in Berlin last night for a short stay.

Allies Send Troops to Montenegro.

(By Associated Press.)
London, Dec. 4.—A Berlin dispatch says it is unofficially announced that a number of transports conveyed by British and French warships have reached Antivari, the sole Montenegrin seaport. An Austrian ship guarding the coast is reported to have retired, but the aeroplanes are active in making disembarkation from the transports unsafe.

Don't think that a man is ready to take the advice of every fool he meets just because he takes yours.

Prince of Wales at the Front.

(By Associated Press.)
London, Dec. 4.—The Prince of Wales is at the front and is repeatedly in the trenches under fire. Though he is a fragile appearing youth, he has won the admiration of the army by his physical endurance.

Italy in the Balance.

(By Associated Press.)
Rome, Dec. 4.—The Italian Premier's statements to Parliament yesterday are taken to mean that Italy is now ready for any emergency. Some of the deputies said that Premier Salandra yesterday could have caused Italy to declare war by uttering just one word to that effect. Some Italian statesmen believe the Premier's report of Italy's preparedness will be taken by Austria as a challenge.

No Sign of Turks.

(By Associated Press.)
Cairo, Dec. 4.—British aviators are making constant flights over Sinai Peninsula. They report no signs of the Turks. The entire Bedouin company that attacked the British patrol were captured.

Artillery Fight in Belgium.

(By Associated Press.)
Paris, Dec. 4.—A French official announcement says there is heavy but intermittent artillery firing in Belgium. A German infantry attack was repulsed near Ypres.

Russia Makes Big Claims.

(By Associated Press.)
London, Dec. 4.—A Petrograd official report says the battle of Lodz ended with Russia successfully capturing great numbers of German prisoners, cannon and machine guns.

SHREVEPORT NEGRO WAS NOT LYNCHED

Escaped From Posse and It Is Believed Fled to Texas.

(By Associated Press.)
Shreveport, La., Dec. 4.—K. McKnight, the negro reported to have been lynched yesterday for the killing of Postmaster Hicks at Sylvester, escaped from the posse. It is believed McKnight fled to Texas.

COTTON FUTURES ADVANCED TODAY

(By Associated Press.)
New York, Dec. 4.—Under selling pressure cotton futures were firm today, advancing five points.

IT IS a matter of grave consideration these days—your grocery bills—and you owe it to yourself to watch the details, figure the cost as you go, and compare your bills.

Compare the cost of groceries at other stores with those bought here, and learn where it is most advantageous for you to trade.

Then consider the quality of the goods you buy.

We will gladly abide by your decision.
